In Memoriam

The Congregation extends our condolences to the family and friends of Allan Baker, Rose Goldstein, Arnold Orloff and Irv Lipetz.
We accomplished quite a bit these past few months, but there is no time for relaxation (except on Shabbat). There are many events that we cook and bake for, and this requires organization: deciding what to prepare, when to prepare, the actual preparation, and then the presentation. Our group has discussions on these issues so that we are not deluged at the last minute. Everyone participates and their input is what makes this project so successful. Thanks to Georgia Goldman, Bonnie Toborowsky, Phyllis Leibson, Gale Katcher, Jenni Katcher, Lottie Samuel, Sarah Minton and Lois Dunner for all the work that you do!

Many people have told me that they would love to bake and cook with us. We are just a phone call away! New recipes are always welcome as well. Please email recipes to Bonnie Shaikun at bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com.

Please join us for our exciting Gluten-Free Baking Workshop on Sunday, November 18th at 2:00 p.m. Our chef will be Sue from Half Peach Vegan Bakery, assisted by Ellana Bessen.

If you have an opportunity to join us, we would welcome your participation. If you can just come once in a while, that works too. Please call or e-mail me at 458-5359 or bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com to join the fun!

SHABBAT KIDDUSH LUNCH SPONSORS

We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of the following AJ members for their sponsorship of the Shabbat morning Kiddush lunches:

November 24, 2012 - Kiddush sponsored by Renee & John Rothschild in honor of their 70th wedding anniversary.
SPONSORING A KIDDUSH LUNCH AT AJ

Out of respect for our wonderful Bonnie’s Baking Bunch volunteers who work hard to prepare our delicious kiddush lunches, the maximum number of kiddush lunch guests that they will cater for is 100 people with no exceptions.

Prices for sponsoring a Kiddush lunch are now as follows:

- Kiddush lunch feeding up to 75 guests........$225.00.
- Kiddush lunch feeding up to 100 guests.......$300.00.

Members desiring catering for more than 100 guests are welcome to rent the auditorium and kitchen and hire a caterer of their choosing. To sponsor one of the delicious kiddush lunch packages above, please contact Bonnie Shaikun at bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com or 458-5359.

Below are frequently asked questions about our kiddush lunches:

1. Can I pay you just a little more money to cater for just a few more guests? Our volunteers are members just like you. They are not caterers. 100 people are the maximum number of guests for which they can cater.

2. Can I supplement what the Baking Bunch makes with some extra food that I bring in myself? You may bring in kosher candy and kosher cake. The lunch package that our Baking Bunch offers has many nice options. Families desiring to have additional food or different food, would need to hire a caterer.

3. We know that we will have more than 100 guests in attendance. Will you make an exception, just this once? We’ve had members trying to pressure our staff and volunteers to make exceptions, and we kindly request that you understand that there are limits to what we can ask of our wonderful volunteers.

4. Can the Baking Bunch cater a bar or bat mitzvah kiddush? We don’t have a catering staff to take on this kind of event. The family will need to hire a caterer.

5. I am sponsoring a Bonnie’s Baking Bunch kiddush lunch and want to know how I can help? Families who are sponsoring kiddush lunches are encouraged to volunteer that week to work along-side the rest of our volunteers to help prepare the lunch.

2012 SELICHOT WAS AN EVENING TO REMEMBER!

AJ’s Selichot program this year provided a wonderful evening of entertainment by the West Louisville Boys and Girls Choir. Attendees were treated to a wonderful performance as well as inspiring words from representatives of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Kentuckiana.

MAZAL TOV TO THESE AJ MEMBERS!

Helane & David Cooper on the birth of their grandson, Zachary Ross Cooper.
Although Thanksgiving, a secular American holiday does not have the same status as a traditional Jewish holiday, we Jews see the freedoms that we have in America as something for which we should be thankful. Here are a few ideas to make Thanksgiving a special family day:

- DO GOOD DEEDS TOGETHER. The classic Jewish way of enjoying our blessings is to share them with others. You could donate money to organizations that fight hunger, or donate your time to serve meals at a community Thanksgiving dinner for the needy, or to deliver meals to those who are homebound.

- SAY BLESSINGS. Tell one thing that you are thankful for this year. Say the Hebrew blessings for wine and bread before the festive Thanksgiving meal. (Although not kiddush perse, the blessings over wine and bread are always appropriate.)

- SAY GRACE AFTER MEALS. Through this prayer we can thank God for our many blessings of food and nourishment. Both the traditional and shorter more contemporary versions of the "Birkat HaMazon" are found in many prayer books.

- INVITE OTHERS TO SHARE IN YOUR MEAL. Invite someone far from home to your Thanksgiving dinner. Invite people outside your usual social circle to the Thanksgiving feast. If they are new Americans, they may have much to share about the blessings of this country that we often take for granted.

May we all remember our blessings and give thanks in our own way. Best wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving!

Rabbi Slosberg and Cantor Lipp regularly visit AJ members who are in area healthcare facilities and nursing homes.

Did you also know that our rabbi and cantor are delighted to visit any homebound AJ member who would like a visit?

If you would like a visit by either Rabbi Slosberg or Cantor Lipp, please call the synagogue office at 458-5359, and they will be glad to make those arrangements.
LUNCH & LEARN TALMUD STUDY

The Talmud is one of the central texts of Judaism, in the form of a record of rabbinic discussions pertaining to Jewish law, ethics, philosophy, customs and history.

Adath Jeshurun offers a weekly class in Talmud Study, which is held in downtown Louisville. Bring a brown-bag dairy lunch and join Rabbi Slosberg and Cantor Lipp for a lively discussion. Prior knowledge of Jewish texts and Hebrew are NOT required.

Classes take place in the office of Steve Berger located at 500 West Jefferson Street on Fridays at 12:15 p.m. The class schedule is below:

- November, 2, 9, 16, 30
- December 7, 14

For more information, please contact Adult Education Coordinator, Deborah Slosberg at dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com or 458-5359. This class is open to the community.

“The SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGION”

This course explores how and why sociologists study religion, and what we have learned from our studies. The class focuses on religion in America, putting trends in Judaism in the context of other faiths.

The class is taught by Marcia Texler Segal, Professor of Sociology Emerita, Indiana University Southeast, and is based on Dr. Segal's college course of the same title. This class is free of charge and open to the community. The class meets at 6:30 p.m. in the AJ Classroom on November 7th and 14th.

It is not necessary to RSVP -- just show up for enlightening evenings. For more information, please call Deborah Slosberg at 458-5359 or email her at dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com.

AJ OFFERS CRASH COURSE IN LEARNING TO READ HEBREW

“Read Hebrew America” is the ideal way to quickly learn how to follow synagogue services, to be more involved in your children’s Jewish education, or simply to enhance your own ties to Judaism. These five FREE 1 ½ hour lessons are open to AJ members. AJ will be offering these classes at 10:00 a.m. on five consecutive Sunday mornings beginning January 6th. Even though the course is free, materials need to be ordered. If you’d like to sign up for the course, please email Deborah Slosberg at dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE!

The Congregation extends much gratitude to the following people listed alphabetically (by first name) who worked so hard on the various tasks associated with the 2012 High Holy Days:

KLEI KODESH & LAY CANTORS: Rabbi Robert Slosberg, Cantor David Lipp, Rabbi Laura Metzger, Moshe Ben-David, Jonathan Hodes and Sara Yamin.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST: Thanks to all those who volunteered their time and those who assisted with the many other details and tasks associated with our High Holy Day programs and services.
Below are President Zegart’s remarks written following Yom Kippur.

Well, I hope your fast was as fast as my fast. It seems that as I get older, fasting becomes easier, and the only thing I really miss is water.

The response to the AJ Kroger Card appeal has been fantastic. We even had to create a temporary waiting list while we ordered 100 more Kroger Cards. The results of the High Holy Day Appeal have not been finalized as of this writing. We definitely have exceeded last year’s total, so our matching funds from our anonymous donors are in play. Remember, every dollar you now send in becomes two dollars. It is never too late to step up.

We received so much positive feedback as to how wonderful our Cantor and choir sounded. It seems that the blend of choral voices was particularly effective this year.

Rabbi Slosberg’s Rosh Hashanah sermon was riveting and touching. It reminded all of us as to what is really important in this life. The three life stories of turning tragedy, hardships, and disappointments into positive life-altering mitzvot for others were truly inspiring.

As you can see, we have made significant strides in our renovation project. We even got the Chester and Vivian Slosberg Sukkah completed on time. The Congregation has already had opportunities to enjoy Kiddush luncheons in the new Sukkah after services.

The only negative to our High Holy Day services was our on-going problem with our air conditioning settings. During Rosh Hashanah services, the David and Jonathan Blue Family Sanctuary and Erskine Auditorium were much too hot. We had a technician on-site to monitor the temperature on Yom Kippur. Unfortunately, at my direction, we over-compensated and set the temperatures too low. Trying to compensate the change from an empty building to a full auditorium in a short time was difficult. To those of you who suffered from blue lips and chattering teeth, I humbly apologize. Next year I will do my best to find a “Goldilocks” solution, i.e., “Not too hot; Not too cold, Just right.” On a positive note, nobody fell asleep during my speech and Rabbi’s sermon. 😊

Shalom y’all,
Arnold J. Zegart

Do you ever feel that because you have not volunteered in a while, that you are not important to the AJ Family?

Do you ever feel that because you have not contributed in a while, that you are not important to the AJ Family?

Do you ever feel that because you have not participated in a while, that you are not important to the AJ Family?

If you are one of those congregants who thinks this way, you are mistaken :-). Every AJ member is important! That is why we ask that you keep us apprised about your life-cycle events, and that you let us know if you are hospitalized or homebound for health reasons. Please keep us informed so that we can offer support when you need it, and celebrate happy occasions with you.

Please also know that it is never too late to start volunteering, contributing, participating and attending services. AJ is your family too, and you can jump in any time and start.

At this time of the year, when Americans customarily show our gratitude, we are so thankful for our wonderful AJ members!

Prior to the high holy days, AJ had a drawing for the chance to use Rabbi Slosberg’s and Cantor Lipp’s reserved parking spaces on the high holy days. This drawing served as a small fundraiser for the shul. The lucky winners were Rhoda & Bernie Faller and Diane & Ken Richter. We look forward to offering this opportunity again next year.
In 1947, a shepherd stumbled upon a hidden cave along the shore of the Dead Sea. Concealed inside were ancient scrolls that had not been seen for 2,000 years. After extensive excavation, a total of 972 remarkably preserved scrolls were found. Considered among the world’s greatest archaeological discoveries, the Dead Sea Scrolls contain the oldest known copies of the Hebrew Bible.

An exhibition of the scrolls and over 500 excavated objects entitled “Dead Sea Scrolls: Life and Faith in Ancient Times” is coming to the Cincinnati Museum Center. Adath Jeshurun is organizing a bus trip to Cincinnati on Sunday, November 18th. Participants will meet in the AJ parking lot at 11:45 a.m. for a prompt 12:00 noon departure to Cincinnati. Following the exhibit, participants will dine at Doodles vegetarian Chinese restaurant.

The price of $50 per person includes bus fare and entrance to the museum. Meals are not included in the cost. All reservations must be pre-paid, and reservations will be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis until the motor coach is full. For more information about the trip, please contact Deborah Slosberg at 458-5359 or dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com. Reserve your space today using the reservation form below.

THANK YOU JOHN ROTHSCILD
By Ed Bornstein

All of us have had the opportunity to see and appreciate our beautiful ark doors which were installed three years ago. What you may not know is that, from the outset, we experienced problems with the mechanism by which the doors open and close. Despite the best efforts of the designer and creator, it was very difficult to open and close the doors, particularly the left one.

John Rothschild, one of our dedicated members and a retired engineer, volunteered to assist in finding a solution. He designed a revision of the track and roller mechanism by which the doors are opened and closed. He presented drawings of his design to a small group, including Ken Von Roenn who made the doors. His design was implemented and vastly improved the movement of the doors. However, additional tweaking was required which John designed and had implemented by the proper craftsmen. The doors now operate quite smoothly, and should continue to do so for many years to come.

The Congregation thanks John for his expertise and determination to help find a solution to this issue. Thanks John!
