AJ OFFERS CRASH COURSE IN LEARNING TO READ HEBREW

“Read Hebrew America” is the ideal way to quickly learn how to follow synagogue services, to be more involved in your children’s Jewish education, or simply to enhance your own ties to Judaism. These five FREE 1 ½ hour lessons are open to AJ members. AJ will be offering these classes at 10:00 a.m. on five consecutive Sunday mornings beginning January 6th. Even though the course is free, materials need to be ordered. If you’d like to sign up for the course, please email Deborah Slosberg at dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com.
WHAT IS CHANUKAH?

★ Significance: Remembers the rededication of the Temple after it was defiled by the Greeks.
★ Observances: Lighting candles.
★ Length: 8 days.
★ Customs: Eating fried foods; Playing dreidel.

Chanukah, the Jewish festival of rededication, also known as the festival of lights, is an eight day festival beginning on the 25th day of the Jewish month of Kislev.

Chanukah is probably one of the best known Jewish holidays, not because of any great religious significance, but because of its proximity to Christmas. It is bitterly ironic that this holiday, which has its roots in a revolution against assimilation and the suppression of Jewish religion, has become the most assimilated, secular holiday on our calendar.

Chanukah is not a very important religious holiday. The holiday's religious significance is far less than that of Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Passover, and Shavuot. The only religious observance related to the holiday is the lighting of candles. It is traditional to eat fried foods on Chanukah because of the significance of oil to the holiday.

Another tradition of the holiday is playing dreidel, a game played with a square top. The traditional explanation of this game is that during the time of Antiochus' oppression, those who wanted to study Torah (an illegal activity) would conceal their activity by playing games with a top (a common and legal activity) whenever an official or inspector was within sight.

CHANUKAH CANDLE-LIGHTING BLESSINGS

One candle is added to the menorah each night. The first night, you light only the shammus (the one at a different height) and one Chanukah candle. By the eighth night, you light all of the candles. Candles should be added to the menorah from right to left (like Hebrew writing). The shammus candle is lit first. While holding the shammus candle, recite the following blessings. The first candle of the menorah is lit at nightfall on December 8, 2012.

Blessing over Candles

Barukh atah Adonai, Eloheinu, melekh ha’olam
Praised are you, Lord, our God, sovereign of the universe
asher kidishanu b’mitz’votav v’tzivanu
Who has sanctified us by your commandments and commanded us

I’had’lik neir shel Chanukah. (Amen)

to light the lights of Chanukah. (Amen)

Blessing for Chanukah

Barukh atah Adonai, Eloheinu, melekh ha’olam
Praised are you, Lord, our God, sovereign of the universe

she’asah nisim la’avoteinu bayamim haheim baziman hazeh. (Amen)
Who performed miracles for our ancestors in those days at this time.

Shehechiyanu (first night only)

Barukh atah Adonai, Eloheinu, melekh ha’olam
Praised are you, Lord, our God, sovereign of the universe

Shehechiyanu v’kiyimanu v’higi’anu laz’man hazeh. (Amen)
Who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this season. (Amen)

THANK YOU JEFFREY GREENBERG!

To accommodate our growing staff, the synagogue office needed to purchase a new desk and laptop computer. Upon learning this, Jeffrey Greenberg generously offered to buy the desk and to donate a laptop! We are so appreciative when our members see a need, and offer to help rather than waiting to be asked. Thank you Jeffrey!

THANK YOU NANCY SUE GILMAN!

In October, Nancy noticed that our beautiful new coatroom was filled with our decades-old worn-out hangers. Upon seeing this, Nancy offered to donate 100 new cedar hangers to adorn our new coatroom. The Congregation thanks Nancy for her generosity, and for always watching out for us!

ADATH JESHURUN LBSY HOME SHABBAT

Saturday, December 15, 2012

Adath Jeshurun LBSY parents and students in grades K - 8 are invited to the December 15th Short & Sweet Jr. Congregation, Adath Jeshurun’s once-a-month Family Shabbat morning service, led by Deborah Slosberg.

The regular Shabbat service begins at 9:30 a.m. in the Yarmuth Family Chapel. At 10:15 a.m., please come to the David and Jonathan Blue Family Sanctuary so your child can find his/her attendance card, and select a part to read in Hebrew or English. The Short & Sweet Family Service begins at 10:30 a.m.

Our family-friendly prayer book, called “Siddur Mah Tov,” is beautifully illustrated with Hebrew prayers translated into English and transliteration. The service is informal, and all students are welcome to participate.

If your child would like to be assigned a short Torah portion (trope not necessary), or a prayer from the Siddur to practice in advance, please e-mail Deborah Slosberg at dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com.
By the time you read this, the election will be over, and you will have had ample time to digest more turkey and dressing from Thanksgiving as well as from the election. Speaking of Thanksgiving, I believe that we all gave thanks for the end to all the political ads, at least until they start up again in January for the next election.

HIGH HOLY DAY APPEAL UPDATE:

As of this writing (late October), we have received pledges of $57,217 from 235 members representing 47% of our membership units. We have received almost $40,000 in payments on these pledges. Our generous anonymous donors will match any money received over $42,787 until December 31st. Seeing that we have almost received our match point, any amount you send in now, will double if received before the end of the year. Again, many thanks to our 47% for your support!

That begs the question, what about the 53% not yet committed? Let me repeat, any amount, large or small, received before December 31st will be matched dollar for dollar. To the 53% who have not yet pledged, it's not too late. Don't whiff out on us (like the Cincy Reds). Please help us clear the bases with a grand slam before December 31st to reach our $80,000 goal.

RENOVATION UPDATE:

As many of you have noticed, we are making slow but sure progress. We have temporarily suspended major work during the holiday and Bar/Bat Mitzvah season. Full-scale construction resumed on November 12th. The interior areas to be finished are the Woodbourne Avenue entrance, Library, Boardroom, Memorial Room, lobby, foyer, hallway, coatroom and new entrance area doors and windows. This construction should take about six to eight weeks, and will complete all inside renovations. The outside plaza, canopy, driveway and walkway complex is due for construction and completion in the spring, after the winter weather.

NEW AJ STAFF MEMBERS:

Ellen Shaikun has been hired for the position of Youth Services Coordinator. Under her direction and leadership, we are going to rebuild our youth programs focusing on social action projects. She will also plan holiday programs.

Lizzie Tasch has been hired as our new Membership Services Coordinator. This position will include social media, bringing in new members, as well as membership retention.

HAPPY CHANUKAH:

Enjoy your latkes during the coming Chanukah season. May all your families spin the Gimel of life because families together win everything.

Shalom y’all,
Arnold Zegart

AJ MEMBERSHIP CORNER
NEWS FROM THE MEMBERSHIP SERVICES COORDINATOR

By Membership Services Coordinator, Lizzie Tasch

When I first heard that the Membership Services Coordinator position was available, my first thought was “Do I really want to work at my synagogue?” The more I thought about it, the more I realized that my answer was YES. I grew up at AJ; I went to preschool here, had a Bar Mitzvah, went to Religious School, and participated in Confirmation class.

I saw my Mom convert to Judaism, and watched my parents get married again so that they could have a Jewish wedding. So why wouldn’t I take this job! I get to tell people how great AJ has been to my family and me for my entire life. I get to show them how great AJ is now, and will continue to be in the future.

As Membership Services Coordinator, I will be working with the synagogue’s Membership Chairperson, Jeffrey Greenberg on membership recruitment and retention. We have already been brainstorming about new and exciting ideas for AJ members, and for potential new members of the synagogue. Make sure to look for updates on the AJ Facebook page, as well as on the synagogue’s up-and-coming new website. Feel free to send any ideas or suggestions my way. I would love to hear from you!

Sincerely,
Lizzie Tasch • AJ Membership Services Coordinator • etasch@adathjeshurun.com • 502.458.5359 ext. 112
I do love the Jewish calendar. I love to talk about how early or late the holidays arrive.

When it comes to the High Holy Days, early is Labor Day weekend. Late is the end of September. When it comes to Chanukah, coinciding with Christmas is late and coming on the heels of Thanksgiving is early. One ‘early’ year, my stand-up comic cousin sent out a Chanukah card with a new tradition: A Menorky, a hybrid Turkey with nine candles stuck in its cold flesh.

This year, both the High Holy Days and Chanukah arrive at what I would call ‘Goldilocks’ time: Not too early and not too late, mid-September and mid-December respectively.

The joy of Chanukah is one that I love to share with congregants and community, and as with comedy, timing is everything. This year, AJ is providing many opportunities to celebrate and observe Chanukah:

Chanu-Glenview-kah:

Leading up to the holiday, I’ll be visiting many assisted-living facilities and nursing homes to play a half-hour Chanukah program culminating in the Glenview event on the third night, Monday, December 10th at 7:30 p.m. As we did last year, feel free to bring your own menorah and candles.

Chanukah Chappens @ the Bard’s Town Lounge on Bardstown & Speed

Hoping to share this music and spirit with others, I’ll be putting together a program of music, comedy, storytelling and poetry at the Bard’s Town Lounge on the first night of Chanukah, Saturday, December 8th at 7:00 and 8:30 p.m. Guests will include Cantors Nicholson and Hordes from Temple Shalom and Kneseth Israel respectively, Jennifer Diamond from The Temple, our own Bob Sachs with a new Chanukah Story, Jason Gilbert and Raanan Hershberg with ChanuComedy, and Michael Jackman with ChanuPoetry.

BYOM (Bring Your Own Menorah)

Finally, on the last night of Chanukah, families are invited to a BYOM (Bring Your Own Menorah) event where we’ll light the full Chanukiot in shul, sing, dance (with a Zumba teacher), play games and eat LOTS of latkes and Sufganiyot (Chanukah doughnuts.)

Turn Your Radio On!

Following up on the two High Holy Day radio shows that I put together for WUOL 90.5 FM this past September, watch for a special Chanukah broadcast or two as well. As of this writing, I’m unsure as to whether there will be a WFPK 91.9 FM collection of alternative Chanukah music as well. Stay Tuned!

Most importantly, remember that whenever Chanukah happens, it always begins at the end of the lunar month of Kislev, when the night sky is getting progressively darker for most of the holiday until the moon is invisible. Even when Chanukah occurs early, it is always within a month of the darkest days of the solar year, leading into the shortest days of the year. How appropriate to commemorate this calendrical darkening with physical illumination.

May we all find ways to illuminate the darkness of the universe as we celebrate the Festival of Lights.

Chag Urim Sameach!
Cantor Lipp

PLEASE WELCOME OUR NEW MEMBERSHIP SERVICES COORDINATOR LIZZIE TASCH!

We are pleased to announce that Lizzie Tasch has joined the AJ staff as our new Membership Services Coordinator. Lizzie is the daughter of Bruce Tasch and Elaine Stauble, and has grown up at AJ. She is excited to share her love of AJ with the community. Lizzie will be working on membership recruitment, membership retention, website maintenance and social media for AJ. Please help us welcome Lizzie!

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN PARTICIPATING IN A MISSION TO JEWISH CUBA?

For 40 years this island, just 90 miles south of Florida, has been virtually cut-off from America. The U.S. government now permits visits to Cuba under certain circumstances. Groups are permitted to take medical supplies into the country. The goal of this mission is to take much-needed medical supplies and to become acquainted with Cuba’s Jewish community and learn of their concerns, needs and circumstances. This is also an opportunity to learn about the Jewish history of Cuba, and see the Jewish sites.

Rabbi Slosberg is planning an AJ group mission to Jewish Cuba. He is trying to ascertain if there is enough interest to have a viable group. We don’t yet have travel dates or prices. At this point, we are just trying to determine if there is interest. If you are interested in being put on the list to receive more information about the Cuba mission when it becomes available, please email rsilverman@adathjeshurun.com, and put “Cuba Trip” in the subject line.

STAINED-GLASS WINDOWS ARE SPECTACULAR!

By Rabbi Robert B. Slosberg

Thanks to the generosity of several wonderful donors, our Yarmuth Family Chapel now has four breathtaking new stained-glass windows. These windows added the finishing touch to a beautiful renovation provided through the generosity of the Yarmuth children, grandchildren and loved ones in honor of Edna and Stanley Yarmuth. The windows were custom-designed and manufactured by Ascalon Studios, a New Jersey based studio that specializes in Jewish-themed glass art. During various times of the day, depending on the position of the sun, beautiful mosaic colors are reflected throughout the chapel, accenting the feeling that this worship space is holy. We hope that the symbolism depicted in these windows is inspirational to all who worship in the chapel.

The windows depict four of the core values of our congregation. Descriptions of the four windows are listed below, starting from left to right:

A) WINDOW OF LEARNING – This window depicts love of torah and features a torah, an open book, a quill, and various letters of the Hebrew alphabet. It was lovingly donated by William Yarmuth in honor of his son, Jacob.

B) WINDOW OF DEEDS OF LOVING KINDNESS – This window depicts righteous acts, charity, and hospitality by portraying a set of caring hands, a tent of welcome, and the scales of justice. This window was donated by Lillian S. Levy in loving memory of her husband, Bert Levy and her son, Harvey Lerner.

C) WINDOW OF REMEMBRANCE – This window represents the Holocaust and other struggles of the Jewish people by depicting the broken menorah in flames, but redemption is represented by the Israeli Flag, the Star of David and the dove of peace emerging from the flames. This window was lovingly donated by John and Renee Rothschild.

D) WINDOW OF HONORING – This window expresses L'dor Vador, from generation to generation. The notion of honoring our parents and honoring the aged is beautifully depicted in the portrayal of the torah being handed down to the next generation, and in the young tree being shaded and protected by the mature tree. This window was lovingly donated in honor of Bill Yarmuth by his friends: Rob Auerbach, Steve Bass, Britt Brockman, The Carney Family, Jon Goldberg, Ralph Green, David Klein, Steve Samuel and an anonymous donor.

If you have not yet seen our renovated Yarmuth Family Chapel and new windows, please stop by and have a look. May we and future generations be spiritually uplifted by our newly-renovated chapel. May we all strive to live by the values depicted by the stunning new stained-glass windows, and may we cherish the beauty of the Yarmuth Family Chapel and the values represented by the stunning new stained-glass windows.
